

Movie Mayhem

- Tao Tiger is enjoying a quiet evening at home watching his favourite movie. Do you enjoy having a quiet time? Is it important to be allowed to have a quiet time?
- Why did Ginnie tell her friends to 'wait'? Why weren't the friends listening? What would you do if your friends didn't want to do what you wanted to do?
- Did Tao's friends do anything wrong? Explain. How was Tao feeling when his friends barged in? Why was he unhappy when his friends were having a lovely time? Who should consider whose feelings?
- Why does Miranda tell Ginnie, 'It is good to be with your friends'? Have the friends understood what Ginnie is saying? What could the friends have done differently?
- Why did Tao yell at Ginnie and not his other friends? What would you do? Is it nice to yell at friends?
- Why did Tao's friends get a shock when Tao yelled at Ginnie? What is a good way to say sorry? Why is Ginnie saying sorry? Should all Tao's friends have said sorry? What does it mean when you say sorry to someone?
- How is everyone feeling? Pinney suggests watching a movie at his place, is this a good solution? How is Ginnie feeling? Are the friends looking after her?
- How is Tao feeling when he is left alone? What do you think he should do? What would you do?
- Why is Tao saying sorry to Ginnie and not the other friends? Why is Tao inviting Ginnie to watch a movie when he wanted to be alone?
- Why does Ginnie agree to go with Tao? What would you do?
