

Pinney the Winner

- It is sport's day. What is everyone feeling? Why doesn't Ginnie say what she thinks?
- Why is Pinney sure he will win a chocolate medal? What is everyone feeling? Why doesn't Ginnie say what she thinks? x
- Pinney is disappointed when he loses the watermelon race, but wants to keep trying. Would you keep trying? Why?
- Pinney and his friends are celebrating Lulu's win. Would you celebrate someone else winning a race you were in? What does it mean to be a 'good sport'?
- How does Pinney feel after breaking the trampoline? Why are the friends laughing?
Is Ginnie right that the friends shouldn't laugh at Pinney? Why?
- Pinney is trying to win the next race. Why does Pinney keep trying?
- Pinney wants to win the last race of the day but stops to help Ginnie. Why would Pinney stop to help? What would you do?
- Was it anyone's fault that Pinney didn't win? Did Pinney really feel it was okay not to win? Do you feel sorry for Pinney? Why?
- Why did Ginnie think Pinney was a winner? Was Pinney being a caring friend? Why? What would you do?
- Is winning a race more important than helping your friends? Why? Who were the winners today?