

Roll up, Roll up, Clean up

- Why is it good to have a clean and tidy house? What chores do you like to do? Can you think of ways to make cleaning fun?
- Pinney thought Ginnie made the bad smell. Is it rude of him to say what he thinks? Is Ginnie upset with Pinney? Would you be? Do you think Pinney should have said sorry to Ginnie? Why?
- Do you want to clean up a mess made by others? The friends can't agree on what to do. How could they decide?
- Why did the friends agree to help clean up the mess? Can you think of other reasons to keep things clean?
- How would you tell the koalas to clean up their mess?
- Is it always important to keep your house clean? What would happen if you didn't?
- The friends are having fun cleaning. Are there other reasons for the friends to join in?
- Ginnie tells the koalas they have 'done good work'. Is it important to tell someone they have done a good job? Why? How do you feel when someone tells you, you are doing a good job?
- The koalas are sorry about a lot of things. Why are they sorry? The koalas are still arguing. Is there a better way to work things out?
- The koalas are still making a mess. What have they learnt?
- What do you think the friends will do now? What would you do?
